cles relative to a proposed life insurance company, projected by a number of prominent men of Washington. The question of organizing such a company under a Federal charter to engage in business in this city and the States is looked upon as a wise move by many of the local financlers. The plans for forming the company are not yet fully developed, but have made considerable progress in a tentative way.

One general meeting of those interested in the project has been held, at which the matter was discussed at length. A similar meeting will be held next Tuesday of the principal promotors of the enterprise to take such action as may be deemed wise toward furthering the project. As yet only a general plan has been marked out for the proposed company. It is to form a corporation of Washington capitalists and others with a capital stock of $500,000 or $1,000,000, in shares of $100 each. It is proposed to incorporate the company under a Federal charter, to do business in the District of Columbia and in the larger cities of the country. After the company is formed and incorporated some executive head of national reputation and experience in financia affairs will be selected to conduct its affairs. Men of large ability and experience will be chosen for the responsible executive positions in the company, and some of the larger life insurance com-

It is said that the plan is looked upor with favor by most of the prominent financiers of Washington to whom it has been presented.
